

© dessin Camille Trolle

International Open Access Week

From October 21 to 25, 2019

Take part in the many events organized by the CeRIS,
and make science a common good

International Open Access Week

From October 21 to 25, 2019

PROGRAM

Monday, October 21

2-3:30pm

Jules Bordet room

Opening

Information session

Open science, science publications and data management (in French)

Tuesday, October 22

6-7:30pm

François Jacob Auditorium

Film screening followed by a discussion with the CeRIS team

Paywall: the business of scholarship

directed by Jason Schmitt, 2018 (subtitles in French)

Wednesday, October 23

5-7pm

The 25

Open café

- Multimedia hall: posters, stands et Open access ressources

- Board game : Super Open Researcher

- Escape room : Open it up!

Thursday, October 24

2:30-4pm

Jules Bordet room

Interactive conference followed by a discussion panel

Open access : where do you stand? (in French)

Outcomes of the national survey conducted among researchers on their publishing and Open Access practices. Focused on Pasteurians' responses.

Panel : François Bontems (working group «Science et société»), Arnaud Tarantola (former RIIP member), Anne Lassailly-Bondaz (CeRIS, Open access coordinator).

Friday, October 25

11:30am-2:30pm

6:30-9pm

The 25

Open café

Closing with Stapa

Stapa social time : Open access?

Most events are open to all Pasteurians, without registration. Only games offered during the Open café require prior registration.

Further information / games registration : Webcampus>Vie scientifique>CeRIS>Bibliothèque

Contact : marie.martin@pasteur.fr, p.8068

